GENERAL ORDER

SUBJECT: POSITION DESCRIPTION – CORPORAL

NEW REVISED RESCINDS

APPROVED: GM
GEORGIA MILTENBERGER
ACTING CHIEF OF POLICE

Effective Date 8/22/2018

I. INTRODUCTION

As a first-line supervisor, the Corporal is expected to perform all duties. required of every police officer either directly or through his subordinates and is responsible for the work of operational line officers. As the link between officers and the Sergeant, the Corporal assists with and is concerned with the achievement of the police purpose. The Corporal must assist in its execution. The Corporal, having continuous face-to-face contact with the officers, performs a dual role: technical - having to do with the proper methods of performing the basic police function; interpersonal - having to do with the human relations involved in directing the work of others.

The most difficult and burdensome part of a supervisor's job is administering discipline. Good discipline is a force within an officer that causes the officer to adhere to high standards of work and behavior on a voluntary basis. Officers who develop and apply good work habits are well-disciplined individuals. The supervisor establishes these work habits through the climate of supervision and personal example.

Disciplinary action is taken when discipline has failed. Forms of disciplinary action are discussed in other General Orders, the Cottage City Code and the Law Enforcement Officers' Bill of Rights.
